

Map Indicating Locations of Activities by Rescue Teams from Foreign Countries/Territories International Organizations, etc. (as of March 23, 2011)

UNDAC Team: 7-person team, with the JICA office in Tokyo as the operation hub. After March 23, scheduled to operate as a roughly 3-person OCHA team.

Teams that have completed their activities and withdrawn:
 USA: 144 rescue workers (accompanied by search dogs); withdrew on March 19. Experts from the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission and personnel from the US Dept. of Energy are still continuing their activities.
 Singapore: 5 rescue workers, 5 search dogs; withdrew on March 15.
 China: 15 rescue workers; withdrew on March 20.
 Taiwan: 28 rescue workers; withdrew on March 18.
 Germany: 41 rescue workers, 3 search dogs; withdrew on March 15.
 Switzerland: 27 rescue workers, 9 search dogs; withdrew on March 16.
 Mexico: 12 rescue workers, 6 search dogs; withdrew on March 17.
 UK: 77 rescue workers (including 8 media personnel), 2 search dogs; withdrew on March 17.
 Australia: 75 rescue workers, 2 search dogs; withdrew on March 19.
 New Zealand: 52 rescue workers; withdrew on March 18.
 Mongolia: 12 rescue workers; withdrew on March 19.
 Russia: 75 rescue workers in Team 1 and 80 in Team 2; withdrew on March 18.
 Republic of Korea: 107 rescue workers, 2 search dogs conducting activities in Sendai; scheduled to withdraw on March 23.

Indonesia: 11 rescue workers and 4 administration and medical personnel are providing humanitarian assistance in Kesennuma, Shiogama, and Ishinomaki, including confirming the safety of Indonesian nationals.

Turkey: 32 rescue workers are providing assistance in Tagajo, Ishinomaki, and other places in Miyagi Prefecture, Rifu being as their operation base.

South Africa: 46 rescue workers are providing assistance in Iwanuma and Natori.

Teams on call:
 France: 134 rescue workers, including Monaco nationals, remain on call at Misawa Air Base after completing their activities in Natori, Miyagi Prefecture.

Assistance other than rescue teams:
 Italy: 6-member advance survey team (experts on search and rescue, nuclear safety, etc.) conducted surveys within Tokyo metropolis; all departed Japan by March 21.
 IAEA: 4-member team of radiation measurement specialists arrived on March 18 and are conducting activities in the areas near Tokyo and around Fukushima Prefecture.