

Ensuring Human Security in Somalia ~ From Emergency Relief to Socio-Economic Development ~

May 31, 2013
MOFA, Japan

Japan's new approach to help to ensure Human Security in Somalia

Announced at the Special Conference on Somalia

1. Reinstating Delivery of Basic Social Services

2. Strengthening Capacity
in Public Security

3. Vitalizing the Economy

➡ Resumption of direct bilateral assistance to the Federal Government of Somalia (ODA seminars, training in Japan, etc.)

➡ Emphasis on capacity building, empowerment of youth and vulnerable populations

Japan's latest contribution to Somalia (55.4 million USD, Disbursed in March 2013)

39.6 million USD to help reinstate delivery of basic social services:

- Improvement of living conditions through provision of and capacity building for basic social services in health, water and sanitation, education, and housing (38.6 million USD, ICRC, UNHCR, UNICEF, IFRC, UNHABITAT, IOM)
- Improvement of energy supply through introduction of solar energy systems (1 million USD, UNDP)

15.8 million USD to strengthen capacity in public security:

- Stipends to 6,000 Somali Police Force Officers over 7 months (5.3 million USD, UNDP)
- Capacity building of the Ministry of Interior and Police Force Headquarters to strengthen command and control systems and police oversight (2 million USD, UNDP)
- Institutional and human capacity development for peace support operations in Somalia at the Nairobi PKO center (1.5 million USD, UNDP)
- Reduction and disposal of explosive devices and landmines (4 million USD, UNMAS)
- Strengthening border management and control (3 million USD, IOM)