Japan-EU EPA

Background & Significance

- Protectionist movements and market-distorting measures by emerging countries (industry subsidies, and forced technology transfer, etc.).
- Stagnation of the Doha Round of the WTO negotiation and the necessity of modernisation of the WTO (e-commerce, investment, dispute settlement, and transparency, etc.).

By concluding the EPA, Japan and the EU set a model of trade liberalisation to the world as flag bearers for free trade.

(EU's GDP: 14.6 trillion dollars (29.3 % of the world GDP), Japan's GDP: 1.6 trillion dollars (3.3% of the world GDP) (2022))

Implementation

- In principle, the Joint Committee (ministerial level) meets once a year. So far, meetings have been held in April 2019 (1st meeting), February 2021 (2nd meeting), March 2022 (3rd meeting) and April 2023 (4th meeting).
- The Specialised Committees and Working Groups covering 12 different fields are held regularly at the administrative level.

(Note: In principle, the following Committees and Working Groups established under the Joint Committee are held annually. Specialised Committees: (1) trade in goods; (2) rules of origin and customs-related matters; (3) sanitary and phytosanitary measures; (4) technical barriers to trade; (5) trade in services, investment liberalisation and electronic commerce; (6) government procurement; (7) intellectual property; (8) trade and sustainable development; (9) regulatory cooperation; (10) cooperation in the field of agriculture. Working Groups: (1) wine; (2) motor vehicles and parts.)

Progress after entry into force

(Note: The Japan-UK CEPA was signed in October 2020 and entered into force in January 2021 following BREXIT. )

- After the EPA entered into force in February 2019, trade has been expanding.
- Geographical Indications (GIs) to be protected were added three times. In 2023, 20 new names were added as GIs of Japan to be protected. Currently, 131 GIs of Japan are protected under the EPA.
- In January 2024, the Protocol amending the Agreement to include provisions on the free flow of data was signed. In May, the Protocol was concluded, and it is scheduled to enter into force on July 1.
- Four Joint Dialogues have been conducted between Japanese and EU officials and Civil Society Organisations with a view to mutually co-operating with civil society on trade and the implementation of sustainable development, environment, labour, etc.

<27 EU Member States>

Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Germany, Estonia, Ireland, Greece, Spain, France, Croatia, Italy, Cyprus, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Hungary, Malta, Holland, Austria, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia, Slovakia, Finland, Sweden

Population :447.9million (2023)(approximately 3.6 times larger than that of Japan)

<Chronology>

March 2013 : determining the launch of the negotiation July 2017 : agreement in principle December 2017 : finalisation of the negotiations July 2018 : signing December 2018 : conclusion February 2019 : entry into force

<References>

 Japan's EPAs/FTAs
21 EPAs with 24 countries and regions have entered into force / signed (as of July 2023)
Recent EPAs/FTAs of the EU

- ROK: entered into force in 2015
- Canada : provisional application started in 2017
- Singapore : entered into force in 2019
- Vietnam : entered into force in 2020
- •UK: entered into force in 2021
- New Zealand: signed in 2023
- •Kenya: agreed in 2023

Exportation of Japanese products to the EU's market Elimination rate of customs duties on the EU side : approximately 99% (Note 1)(Note 2)

Industrial products: Not only big firms but also small &amp; medium-sized supplyin Agriculture, forestry and fisheries products: The EPA will create an environment export of Japanese products to a market of more than 400 the EU. Alcoholic beverages: Export will expand and the brand image will be strengther protection of GIs.
Importation of the EU products to Japan's market Elimination rate of customs duties on the Japanese side: approximately 94% (agriculture, forestry and fisheries products : approximately 82%, industrial products : 100%)(Note 1)

Main contents: Trade in Services / Investment, Rules

Trade in Services, Investment, E-commerce

Trade in Services, Investment, E-commerce

OIn principle all trade in services and investments are liberalised. Reserved exceptional measures and areas are enumerated (Negative List).

ORules meeting the needs of Japanese businesses in Europe are provided (telecommunications services, regulatory cooperation on financial regulation, etc.).

ORules ensuring security and credibility of e-commerce are provided

(prohibition of imposing customs duties on electronic transmissions, prohibition of forced disclosure of source codes, prohibition of restriction on cross-border transfer of information by electronic means (from July 1), etc.)

High-level rules in the 21st century

State-owned enterprises, subsidies

OState-owned enterprises: ensuring commercial considerations in its purchase or sale of a good or service, and non-discriminatory treatment for enterprises of the other Party.

OSubsidies: notification obligation, procedure for the request for consultation, prohibiting certain types of subsidies, etc.

Intellectual Property

OHigher standards than TRIPS

(protection of trade secrets, extension of term of protection for rights of an author of a literary or artistic work to 70 years after the author's death, etc.) OHigh level of mutual protection of geographical indications (GI). 131 GIs of Japan ("KOBE BEEF", "YUBARI MELON",

"Satsuma", and "Nihonshu / Japanese Sake", etc.)

Regulatory Cooperation

ORegarding regulatory measures on trade and investment, regulatory authorities of both Japan and the EU: issue publication in advance, offer reasonable opportunities for any person to provide comments, conduct prior and retrospective evaluation, and exchange information on good regulatory practices.