1. An inviting person/guarantor needs to prepare the “documents provided from Japan” listed on Page 2 prior to a visa application.

2. When the documents are ready, the inviting person/guarantor shall send them to a visa applicant, NOT to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs or to the embassy/consulate-general/consular of Japan. The Ministry or the embassy/consulate-general will not make copies. Please make a copy before submitting if the inviting person/guarantor needs to keep all documents.

3. When the visa applicant has prepared all required documents listed in the table on page 2, submit them to the agencies accredited by the Embassy. For the details of accredited agencies, please contact the Embassy/Consulate-General/Consular office or check their website. The applicant traveling for diplomatic/official purpose or invited by Japanese government (or independent administrative agency) can submit the applications directly to the Embassy/Consulate-General/Consular office. Please note that the required documents must be valid and issued within the last three months. All the documents, except for passport, submitted with application will not be returned.

4. The Embassy of Japan/consular office will start processing the visa application after receiving all necessary documents. Please make sure if the all necessary documents are prepared before submitting. The process may take approximately one week, depending on each case. Additional documents may be required upon request by the Japanese embassy/consulate-general/consular. (The accredited agencies may contact the visa applicant or the inviting person/guarantor for additional documents.) The documents may be sent to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo for a further consideration. ※Examples of additional documents: proof of employment, copy of passport, copy of driver’s license, baptismal certification, proof of residence, school records (primary or secondary school), graduation albums, Certificate of No Marriage Record, work history, health check results, copy of maternal health notebook, etc. The additional documents may vary depending on each case. Please contact directly the consulate-general or consular offices that has jurisdiction over the visa applicant’s place of residence in advance. The applicant may also find a list of the required documents on the website of the Japanese Embassy in the Philippines at www.ph.emb-japan.go.jp.

5. The validity of a visa is three months. The period of validity cannot be extended.

6. The decision will be notified to the visa applicant by the embassy/consulate-general of Japan (or visa processing agency).
