[General Remarks]
1. Prior to a visa application, the applicant needs to prepare “Documents provided from Japan” listed on page 4, from an inviting person/guarantor. It is not examined the papers to the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General or Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Japan from the inviting person/guarantor directly.
   (Note 1) Since procedures for the visa application may take a considerable time, the documents should be prepared and sent to the visa applicant well in advance.
   (Note 2) The inviting person/guarantor is recommended to keep a copy of the documents in case of further inquiry.
2. The visa applicant needs to prepare a passport, two photos, two visa application forms and other necessary documents in addition to the above-mentioned documents. As the required documents vary depending on the local situation and the purpose of the visit, please contact the Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over the visa applicant’s place of residence directly.
3. When all required documents are prepared, the visa applicant may submit the application at the Japanese Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over his/her place of residence. The application will not be accepted in Japan. The documents must be valid at the time of application and must be submitted within three months of their date of issue. Any documents submitted at the time of application will not to be returned to the applicant, with the exception of his/her passport.

4. The examination period is approximately one week, though it may vary depending on the details of the application. The applicant may be required to submit additional documents which are deemed necessary for the examination. The documents may be forwarded to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo in order to further examination if necessary.

5. There could be cases that applicants who fulfill the qualification above are issued no visa or only single entry visa due to other reasons.

6. The period of validity cannot be extended.
