

Symposium
Toward a 100% Renewable Energy Society
- Multi-Stakeholder Initiatives in Japan

When: 13:00 – 16:30, Thursday, 23 August 2018 (Registration 12:30)

Where: Room702, Building No.7, Chiba University of Commerce

Access: 1-3-1, Konodai, Ichikawa City, Chiba, Japan

Cost: Free

Registration: Please register at the event website.

Co-organized by :

Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan

Ministry of the Environment, Japan

Japan Climate Leaders' Partnership (Japan-CLP)

ICLEI Japan

CAN-Japan

Co-sponsored by:

Daiwa House Industry Co., Inc.

Shizen Energy Inc.

In Collaboration with :

Chiba University of Commerce

Climate Action Network International

Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES) (TBC)

The Climate Group (TBC)

ICLEI- Local Governments for Sustainability (TBC)

We Mean Business (TBC)

Program

(*Simultaneous interpretation will be provided)

(Program to be updated. The latest program can be found at event Website)

Opening Remarks: Kazuyuki Nakane, State Minister for Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan

Keynote Speech: TBC

Panel Discussion 1: “Expansion of 100% Renewable Energy Commitments in Japan and the World”

Panel Discussion 2: “Accelerating toward Energy Transition”

Closing Remarks: TBC, Ministry of the Environment, Japan

Panelists and Speakers (Subject to change)

Lasse Bruun, Global Head of Energy Transition, CAN International

Sachihiko Harashina, President, Chiba University of Commerce

Wael Hmaidan, Executive Director, CAN International

Tomoaki Ishigaki, Director, Climate Change Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan

Katsuhiko Koyama, General Manager, Environment Department, Daiwa House Industry, CO., Inc.

Kaori Miyake, Executive Officer, CSR & Communication, AEON, CO., LTD.

Eri Nakashima, Vice Governor, Nagano Prefecture

Noriaki Okura, Executive Director, Climate Change Policy Headquarters, City of Yokohama

TBC, Shizen Energy Inc.

TBC, International speaker

[Event Website]

<https://go100re.jp/1148>