LAW RELATING TO THE RECIPROCAL JUDICIAL AID TO BE GIVEN AT THE REQUEST OF FOREIGN COURTS

Article 1.-(2)

The said judicial aid shall be rendered under the following conditions:

1. The request shall be made through the diplomatic channel.
2. The request for the service of papers shall be made in writing stating the name, nationality, and domicile or residence of the person on whom the papers are to be served.
3. The request to take evidence shall be made in writing stating the names of the parties to the litigation, the manner in which the evidence is to be taken, the name, nationality, and domicile or residence of the person to be examined, and the matters to be investigated. In regard to criminal matters, the request shall be accompanied by a statement of the essential facts of the case.
4. In case the letter of request and documents annexed thereto are not written in the Japanese language, translation thereof into Japanese shall be appended to the original.
5. The State to which the Court making the request belongs shall guarantee the payment of the expenses incurred in the execution of the letter of request.
6. The State to which the Court making the request belongs shall assure that it could render judicial aid in the same or similar matters if so requested by the Japanese Courts.

In case where treaties or other documents of similar nature provides otherwise than as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, such provisions shall prevail.
