10:30-11:40 Session1: Presentations - Typology of good practices and roles in triangular cooperation

Given that triangular cooperation manifests itself in various forms, it would be useful to privilege an inductive approach that allows identifying some types of good practice. Based on experiences in ground presented by the speakers, this Session aims illuminating key roles that the pivotal actors can play in triangular cooperation, in relation to other actors.

Moderator: Akio Hosono, Senior Research Advisor, JICA Research Institute

Speakers:

- Enrique O’Farrill, Head of Department of Bilateral and Multilateral Cooperation, International Cooperation Agency of Chile (AGCID), Chile
- Kirana Pritasari, Director General of Public Health, Ministry of Health, Republic of Indonesia

- Elisabeth Fupe, Muhimbili National Hospital, Ministry of Health, Tanzania
- Uğur Tanyeli, Head of Department of External Relations and Partnerships, Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency (TİKA), Turkey

11:40-11:55 Coffee break

11:55-13:15 Session2: Round Table Discussion - How can triangular cooperation be conducted more effectively to advance the G20 action plan on the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development?

The speakers and the floor will be invited to discuss on the basis of the typology of good practices and the lessons learned from these practices. Key questions are: what essential elements can be identified as factors favouring and maximizing the impact of triangular cooperation?; what are factors limiting its potential?; which role can the G20 play to address these?
