

Outline of Application Procedures for Single Entry Visa for Chinese Nationals residing outside of China

The following is an outline of procedures for nationals of People's Republic of China who reside outside of Mainland China to apply for a temporary visitor visa (duration of stay in Japan for up to 90 days) for the purposes of short-term business affairs, visits relatives / acquaintances, or tourism.

In any case, it is not allowed to perform any activities to undertake revenue-generating business operations or any activities to receive remuneration.

- A visa application for “short-term business affairs, etc.” means a visa application for the following purposes:
 - Participation in meetings, cultural exchange, exchange between municipalities, sports exchange, etc.
 - Business liaison, conference, business meeting, contract signing, after-sales service, advertising, market research, etc.
- A visa application for “visiting relatives/acquaintances.” means a visa application for the purpose of visiting relatives (a spouse, blood relatives and relatives by affinity of up to the third degree) or acquaintances (including friends).
- A visa application for “tourism” means a visa application for the purpose of sightseeing.

[General Points to Consider in Visa Application]

Be sure to read the followings.

1. An inviting person/guarantor needs to prepare the documents listed on Page 2 or 3 “B. Prepared by inviting person/guarantor in Japan” prior to a visa application, and send them to a visa applicant, not either to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan or the Embassy or the Consulate-General of Japan. It is recommended that an inviting person/guarantor personally should keep photocopies of these documents.
2. The documents to be submitted may vary depending on the local situation and the purpose of visit. Please inquire directly to the Embassy/Consulate-General with jurisdiction over the place of residence of the visa applicant well in advance. Some Embassies/Consulates-General of Japan may offer information on the required documents on the web site (Overseas Diplomatic Mission Web Page).
3. When all the documents are ready, a visa applicant applies for a visa at the Embassy/Consulate-General of Japan (or visa processing agency) with jurisdiction over the place of residence of the applicant by submitting all the documents (The application cannot be made in Japan). The required documents should be valid at the time of visa application, and should be submitted within three months of their date of issue. All documents submitted for visa application will not be returned, except for passport.
4. Documents for visa application are different, depending on where the applicant resides. Please refer to page 2 for Chinese Nationals residing certain European countries and Asian countries (areas) (Note), or page 3 for Chinese Nationals residing other than certain European countries and Asian countries (areas) (Note)

(Note) Certain European countries and Asian countries (areas):
USA, Canada, Australia, NZ, UK, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Austria, Netherland, Switzerland, Sweden, Spain, Denmark, Germany, Norway, Finland, France, Belgium, Portugal, Luxemburg, Singapore, Indonesia, Thailand, Philippines, Brunei, Malaysia, Korea, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macau
5. The Embassy/Consulate-General of Japan will start processing the visa application after receiving all necessary documents. The process may take approximately one week, depending on each case. The applicant may be requested to submit additional documents if necessary. Furthermore, the Embassy/Consulate-General of Japan may make inquiries to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Tokyo. In such cases, extra time will be required for the decision.
6. The validity of a visa is three months. The period of validity cannot be extended.

7. The result of the examination will be notified to the visa applicant by the Embassy/Consulate-General of Japan (or visa processing agency)

The submitted documents will be managed appropriately based on the Act on the Protection of Personnel Information.
