Seminar Information

“Global Business Seminar”

～Business Environment and

Expansion of Foreign Direct Investment in Japan～

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA) is pleased to announce the hosting of "Global Business Seminar" under the theme of the business environment in Japan from the view of foreign countries and the expansion of the foreign direct investment in Japan. Capturing robust overseas demand will enhance Japan's economic vitality and long-term growth potential. It is also becoming even more important for the recovery and strengthening of regional earning power in Japan.

In this seminar, representatives of the business world will give remarks regarding the trend of Investing in Japan, business environment and the merit of investing. Also, government representatives and local government officials will give remarks on the efforts and actions to promote foreign direct investment in Japan.

We welcome the participation of business people and investors overseas who are interested in the international investment trend; those considering establishing and/or expanding foreign direct investment in Japan in the fields such as development of cross-border innovative service and startup investment; Japanese companies and local governments being interested in collaborating with foreign affiliated companies; and those wanting to attract foreign affiliated companies.
