

G7 Hiroshima Summit

Decorative Welcome Plate for Social Dinner

On May 20, Mr. KISHIDA Fumio, Prime Minister of Japan, and Mrs. KISHIDA Yuko, Spouse of the Prime Minister of Japan, introduced to the leaders of the G7, invited guest countries, representatives of invited guest international organizations and their spouses, at the social dinner on Day 2 of the G7 Hiroshima Summit, a decorative welcome plate inspired by the Seto Inland Sea.

◆ Decorative Welcome Plate Creator Introduction

HATA Junko

1976 Born in Kyoto
 2001 Graduated Kanazawa College of Art Graduate School, Research Department of Fine Art and Craft
 2011 Adjunct Lecturer, Department of Fine Arts, Hijiya Junior College (to present)
 2014 Adjunct Lecturer, Faculty of Arts, Hiroshima City University (to present)
 Currently residing in Hiroshima City

Major Solo Exhibitions

2006 INAX Galleria Ceramica (Tokyo)
 2007 TONG-IN Gallery (Seoul, Korea)
 2008 Yakimono Shin-Kankaku Series, INAX Live Museum (Tokoname)

Major Group Exhibitions

2003 41st Asahi Ceramic Art Exhibition
 2005 3rd World Ceramic Biennale (Korea)
 2008 “Contemporary Form - Life & Art - Colored with Ceramics,”
 Higashihiroshima City Museum of Art (Higashihiroshima)
 2nd Hiroshima Ceramic Art Exhibition, Fukuya Hatchobori Department Store (Hiroshima)
 8th International Ceramics Competition Mino
 2017 The Creation of KOGEI - Diversity and Potential - 6th International KOGEI Art Creators
 Association Exhibition, Hatsukaichi Art Gallery (Hiroshima)

Awards

2003 41st Asahi Ceramic Art Exhibition, Excellence Award
 2008 8th International Ceramics Competition Mino, Mino Award

