

Mr. KAWAMURA Hiroshi graduated from the Kyoto University (Bachelor of Law) and joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan in 1981. He served at the Japanese Embassies in Myanmar, France and Cambodia. He also served as Principal Deputy Chief of Protocol at the Ministry, Administrative Vice President at Japan Foundation. He was Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Cote d'Ivoire and Niger, Togo. He was also Ambassador in charge of Okinawan Affairs at the Ministry, and Ambassador to Norway.

In December 2024 he was appointed the Ambassador for Science and Technology Cooperation as Special Assistance to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan.