- The total figure may not be the same as the figure when calculated by adding up due to rounding off.

- Values in nominal terms are figures for 2024 calculated using the exchange rate of the same year.

Values in real terms are figures for 2024 converted by the DAC Secretariat to the previous year's standards (2023), by eliminating the effects of price fluctuations due to inflation/deflation and exchange rates.

In OECD's press release (Detailed Summary Note), the percentage change from the previous year is shown using values in real terms.
