

DIPLOMACY

Vol.95, Jan./Feb. 2026

Contents

- 84 The Rise of Reform UK Filling a “Representation Vacuum”
Kunihiro Wakamatsu (Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)
- 90 Southeastern Europe through the Lens of Moldova : Russian Threats and Influence Operations
Yoshihiro Katayama (Former Ambassador of Japan to Moldova)
- 96 The Resurgence of Thailand’s Military and Conservative Forces and Nationalism
Ayako Toyama (The University of Tsukuba)
- 102 The “Information Space” Undermining Democracy
Akari Kato (Mitsubishi Research Institute)

Part3: Can Regional Connectivity Create a New Order?

- 108 Roundtable: The Future of the Middle East–Eurasian Order through the Lens of “Transport Corridors”
Ryohei Kasai (Gifu Women’s University), Masamichi Saito (Middle East Institute of Japan), Mizuki Chuman (ROTOBO) and Emi Mifune (Komazawa University)
- 120 From Assistance to Participation : Transformation and Prospects of Japan–ASEAN Relations
Sanae Suzuki (The University of Tokyo)
- 126 Japan’s Pioneering Central Asia Diplomacy: What Strategy Now? : A Case of the First “Central Asia + Japan” Summit
Ryota Saito (ROTOBO)
- 132 Democratization and Coup d'état: Confronting Two Myanmars : Testimonies from Japan’s Diplomacy toward Myanmar
Ichiro Maruyama (Former Ambassador of Japan to Myanmar)
Interviewer: Ryuji Hattori (Chuo University)
- 140 Elections as a Mechanism of Benefit Distribution : Iraq’s Politics 22 Years after the War
Akiko Yoshioka (JIME Center, IEEJ)

144 Book Review:

- Jun Wada, Minoru Kusuda: A Passion for Anonymity*
Daisuke Ikemoto, Thatcher
Shigeki Uno (The University of Tokyo)

Special Feature:

The Evolving Trends of the International Order

- 6 Special Dialogue: Prospects for Japanese Diplomacy in 2026
Advancing the Strategies of the “Free and Open Indo-Pacific” Further
Toshimitsu Motegi (Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan), Yuichi Hosoya (Keio University)

Part 1: Drifting Great-Power Politics and Regional Order

- 14 Roundtable: A Shaken International Order: Who Will Build the Rules?
Masafumi Ishii (Resona Research Institute), Yasuhiro Matsuda (The University of Tokyo), Satoru Mori (Keio University) and Sayuri Ito (NLI Research Institute)
- 28 In Search of a National Survival Strategy
: Security and Economy in the Post-Globalization Era
Masayuki Tadokoro (International University of Japan)
- 34 Do Not Turn Russia’s Invasion of Ukraine into a “Frozen Conflict”
2025: A Year of Severe Challenges for War and Peace Negotiations
Atsuko Higashino (The University of Tsukuba)
- 40 Dialogue: East Asian Affairs Seen from Taiwan and North Korea
: Dimensions of “Division” and Great-Power Politics
Shunji Hiraiwa (Nanzan University), Madoka Fukuda (Hosei University)
- 50 The Dynamism of Coalitions of the Willing in the Indo-Pacific Region
Kei Koga (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
- 56 COP30: Climate Governance as an Emerging International Norm
Wakana Takahashi (Utsunomiya University)
- 62 The Launch of Takaichi Diplomacy
: Engaging with the United States Upholding the Monroe Doctrine
Shinichi Kitaoka (The University of Tokyo)
- 68 Interview: Rethinking Japan’s Growth Strategy
The Role of the Takaichi Administration in Driving Growth
: Government-Private Sector Collaboration and Diplomatic Strategy
Goshi Kataoka (PwC Consulting)
Interviewer: Keiko Iizuka (The Yomiuri Shimbun)

Part2: Democracy Confronting Polarization

- 76 The Development of Democracy in 2026
: A World of Mixed Regression and Progress
Maiko Ichihara (Hitotsubashi University)
- 78 Why Have Far-Right Parties Become “Entrenched” in German Society?
: The AfD’s Strategy of Criticizing Established Parties and Penetrating Local Communities
Takumi Itabashi (The University of Tokyo)