

Documents on Japanese Foreign Policy

Showa Era, Series III , Volume 1, 2 and 3

CONTENTS

Volume 1

1. General Japanese foreign policy, 1937-45

2. Japanese foreign relations with various countries

3. Japanese relations with the Soviet Union
  - (1) Japan-Soviet negotiations on various issues
    - (i) General issues
    - (ii) Soviet's demand for closing Japanese consulates
    - (iii) Soviet's pressure on North Sakhalin concessions and fishery right of Japan
  - (2) Soviet-Manchukuo-Mongolia border incidents
    - (i) The Kanch'atzu Incident, 1937
    - (ii) The Changkufeng Incident, 1938
    - (iii) The Nomonhan Incident, 1939

4. Japanese relations with the Axis Powers
  - (1) General issues
  - (2) Prince Chichibu's visit to Germany
  - (3) German demand for recovery of colonies
  - (4) Negotiations on trade agreement
    - (i) The Japanese-German Trade Agreement

- (ii) The Accord among Italy, Japan and Manchukuo for regulating the trade and the payment
- (5) Negotiations for the conclusion of the agreement on cultural co-operation

Volume 2

5. Information collected on political situation in Europe

- (1) General issues
- (2) The Spanish Civil War
- (3) German annexation of Austria, 1938
- (4) German invasion of Czechoslovakia, 1938-1939
  - (i) German demand for the Sudetenland
  - (ii) Munich Agreement
  - (iii) Annexation of Czech and establishment of the Protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia
- (5) Italian annexation of Albania, 1939

6. Japanese relations with the League of Nations

(Appendix) Participation in International Conferences

7. Economic negotiations with various countries and regions

- (1) The United States (Including the Philippines)
- (2) India and Burma
- (3) The Dutch East Indies
- (4) Australia

Volume 3

8. Issues on emigrants from Japan

- (1) The United States
- (2) The Philippines
- (3) Canada
- (4) Brazil
- (5) Peru

9. Various issues

- (1) Incorporating the Spratly Islands into Japanese territory
- (2) Sending back Ambassador Saito's remains from the United States
- (3) Attempt to establish the Trade Ministry of Japan
- (4) Jewish refugees in the Far East
- (5) Negotiations between various countries on aerial communications
- (6) International whaling
- (7) Discussions for the salmon fishing activities of Japanese nationals in Bristol Bay
- (8) Suspending business of Japanese emigrants in Panama
- (9) The plan of the Tokyo Olympics and the Japan Expo in 1940
- (10) Emperor of Manchukuo's visit to Japan, 1940

Chronological List of Documents