◆OMIYA ARDIJA

The most impressive thing in this programme is how Vietnamese respect Japan.

I was surprised to find many Japanese technology used in Vietnam. And I was pleased that they also respect Japanese Soccer because they had two Japanese Director for Vietnam national team both in men and women. On the other hand, we had shock with the facilities of Vietnam soccer Association. They are very sophisticated and the circumstance for soccer is the best. Contrast to my first impression, Vietnamese is active and gentle and have good personality.

After returning to Japan, I would like to convey the merit of Vietnam and Contrary, also convey the merit of Japan, which doesn't find in Vietnam with SNS. Additionally, I communicate the merit of Japan I couldn't deliver enough in Vietnam.

The most impressive thing that I had in Vietnam is Tap water isn't drinkable.

In Japan, Tap water is drinkable, but in Vietnam it isn't drinkable so that Daily life seemed to be very inconvenient. However, my impression of inconvenience helped me to understand better Vietnamese Culture.

After returning to Japan, I convey Japan's "Security and Safe. The big difference between Japan and Vietnam is "Traffic Safety". They say recently traffic signals have been installed, however they go through a red light and I felt their life in danger. At the same time, in Vietnam, they might communicate each other by blowing the horn to prevent traffic accident. Comparing that, in Japan, observing a stop signal, pedestrians and vehicles could go out at ease. So I would like to convey Japan's "Security and Safe" so that Vietnam could be more safe country.

◆OMIYA ARDIJA

The most impressive thing in this programme, is Japanese generous assistance for Vietnam such as Activities of JICA, Airport Construction, and activities of JOCV. Especially JOCV activity was impressive for me. JOCV member teach KNOW HOW of business for Villagers and contribute to level up of their life standard of Villagers. I confirmed Technical Assistance Service is Japan's advantage.

After returning to Japan, I have few ideas to deliver. First of all, the personality of Vietnam People. They are very active and vigorous. They respect Japan and we are welcomed everywhere. There are many Japanese spoken people and they long for Japan. I was surprised to know how popular Soccer is and the passion for Soccer is enthusiastic and the number of excellent supporters and players as well as Japan.

From now, I convey the experiences with this programme to the world and Japan through SNS and Facebook.
