

Global urban population growth is propelled by the growth of cities of all sizes

How to get sustainable and resilient urban society ?

1. How to include DMC (Disaster Management Cycle) and deepened people's disaster awareness in urban policy ?
2. What are the challenges of national and local governments to construct resilient infrastructures ?
3. Especially, Asian big cities are under large scale disasters such as river flooding, storm surge and earthquakes. How to get sustainable urban activities ?
4. What makes a smart city "smart" and disaster lessons of urban strategy on adoptable and innovative society ?