

PRACTICAL ARRANGEMENTS

BETWEEN

THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF JAPAN

AND

THE INTERNATIONAL ATOMIC ENERGY AGENCY

ON

COOPERATION IN THE AREA OF

SUPPORT TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF NUCLEAR SECURITY MEASURES ON THE OCCASION OF THE
TOKYO 2020 OLYMPIC AND PARALYMPIC GAMES

These Practical Arrangements are made between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (hereinafter referred to as the “Ministry”), whose address is 2-2-1, Kasumigaseki, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 100-8919, Japan; and the International Atomic Energy Agency (hereinafter referred to as the “IAEA”), an intergovernmental organization established by its Statute, whose address is Vienna International Centre, P.O. Box 100, 1400 Vienna, Austria. Hereinafter, the Ministry and the IAEA will also be referred to individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties”.

1. Scope of Cooperation

The objective of these Practical Arrangements is to set forth the framework for non-exclusive cooperation between the Parties in the area of support to the implementation of nuclear security measures on the occasion of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games. The Parties have identified the following activities in which cooperation may be pursued, subject to the Parties’ respective mandates, governing regulations, rules, policies and procedures:

- Coordination and organization of technical meetings, as required to implement these Practical Arrangements;
- Support to enable IAEA experts to participate as speakers or lecturers in events organized in relation to the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games;
- The provision by the IAEA of training courses, workshops, seminars, technical visits and exercises related to nuclear security systems and measures for major public events;
- The exchange of information related to nuclear security events, as appropriate; and
- The loan, by the IAEA to the Ministry, of selected types of radiation detection equipment, as further defined in a separate agreement concluded pursuant to Paragraph 4. The radiation detection equipment, provided to the Ministry in accordance with such separate agreement, will be returned back to the IAEA after the end of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

2. Points of Contact

The Parties have each designated the following points of contact responsible for the coordination of activities under these Practical Arrangements:

For the Ministry:

Austria
Phone number: +43-1-2600 22299
Fax: +43-1-2600 29299
Email: rjaadnan@iaea.org

All correspondence related to these Practical Arrangements will be through the designated points of contact. Any change to the points of contact will be notified in writing to the other Party in a timely manner.

3. Consultation

The Parties will regularly consult each other on the development, monitoring, review and evaluation of the progress and implementation of activities under these Practical Arrangements.

4. Non-Binding

These Practical Arrangements are non-binding. Accordingly, nothing in these Practical Arrangements gives rise to legal or financial obligations upon either Party. To the extent that any activity may give rise to a legal or financial obligation, a separate agreement will be concluded prior to such activity being undertaken.

5. Funding

The implementation of the activities specified in Paragraph 1 will be subject to the availability of funds.

6. Use of Names, Emblems and Flags

Documentation relating to activities undertaken under these Practical Arrangements may include the respective names, emblems and flags of the Parties. The names, emblems and flags are and remain the property of the respective Party. Joint use of the names, emblems and flags of the Parties is restricted to activities conducted under these Practical Arrangements and each use will be approved in writing on a case-by-case basis by the owning Party. The Parties will not otherwise use the names, emblems or flags of the other Party without such prior written permission.

In no event shall any authorization by the IAEA to use the IAEA's name, acronym, emblem or flag extend to use for commercial purposes or in any manner that suggests an endorsement, preference for or promotion of the Ministry, the Ministry's products, services or activities by the IAEA.

7. Dissemination of Information

The Parties will support the widest possible dissemination of unclassified information provided or exchanged under these Practical Arrangements and any subsequent separate agreements, subject to the need to protect proprietary information. The Parties will ensure the confidentiality of information classified by the other Party as restricted or confidential.

8. Intellectual Property

The Parties will consult each other, as appropriate and if circumstances so require, on issues relating to intellectual property and rights thereto including the necessity of separate agreements referred to in Paragraph 4, while taking into account the IAEA's policy on intellectual property and respecting the IAEA statutory function of, inter alia, fostering the exchange of information among its Member States.

9. Settlement of Disputes

Any disputes arising out of or relating to the interpretation or implementation of these Practical Arrangements will be amicably settled between the Parties.

10. Privileges and Immunities

The Parties note that the Government of Japan accepted the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Atomic Energy Agency on 18 April 1963.

11. Modification

No modification of, or changes to these Practical Arrangements, or waiver of any of their provisions, will be valid unless mutually confirmed in writing by the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any change to the respective points of contact will be notified to the other Party as mentioned in Paragraph 2, without requiring the consent of the other Party.

12. Duration

These Practical Arrangements will remain valid for a period of three (3) years after signature by both Parties and can be extended by the consent of the Parties expressed in writing.

13. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Paragraph 12, either Party may discontinue these Practical Arrangements by giving sixty (60) days' written notice to the other Party. Where notice of discontinuation is given, the Parties will take immediate steps to bring all activities under these Practical Arrangements to a close in a prompt and orderly manner.
