

Rights Based Approach and Basic Education Workshop

Organized by Save the Children Japan with funding from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan
10-12 October 2008
Tokyo, Japan

DAY 1

Session	Time	Activities
1	9:30-10:15	Opening & grounding of workshop
2	10:15-11:15	A family experience - Introduction to the Child/Childhoods Approach
	11:15-11:30	Tea/Coffee break
3	11:30-13:00	Overview of Child Rights Programming & Rights Based Approaches
	13:00-14:15	Lunch
3	14:15-15:45	Child Rights Programming: Principles in Action I (Non-Discrimination)
	15:45-16:00	Tea/Coffee break
4	16:00-17:30	Child Rights Programming: Principles in Action II (Participation) Wrap-up of Day

DAY 2

Session	Time	Activities
	9:30-09:45	Reflection on DAY 1 Gathering Questions
1	09:45-11:15	Child Rights Programming: Principles in Action III (Accountability & Best Interests of the Child)
	11:15-11:30	Tea/Coffee break
2	11:30-13:00	Rights to, in and through Education
	13:00-14:15	Lunch
3	14:15-15:45	Rights-based approach to programming in education Examples Rights-based program planning, monitoring and evaluation I

	15:45-16:00	Tea/Coffee break
4	16:00-17:30	Rights-based program planning, monitoring and evaluation II Wrap-up

DAY 3

Session	Time	Activities
	9:30-09:45	Reflection on DAY 2 Gathering Questions
1	09:45-11:15	Rights-based program planning, monitoring and evaluation III
	11:15-11:30	Tea/Coffee break
2	11:30-13:00	Rights-based reflections on current educational programs Balance of rights based work
	13:00-14:15	Lunch
3	14:15-15:45	Remaining issues and questions
	15:45-16:00	Tea/Coffee break
4	16:00-17:30	Reflection on the workshop Final Wrap-up