THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE
JAPAN-UNITED STATES SECURITY
TREATY AND THE CHARTER OF THE
UNITED NATIONS

Dated at Tokyo, September 14, 1957 Entered into force, September 14, 1957

(Translation)

Tokyo, September 14, 1957

Monsieur l'Ambassadeur,

I have the honour to refer to the establishment of the Japanese-American Committee on Security, pursuant to the agreement announced in the Communique of June 21, 1957, to study problems arising in relation to the Security Treaty, including consultation to assure that any action taken under the Treaty conforms to the principles of the United Nations Charter. It is the view of my Government that the provisions of the Security Treaty and the Administrative Agreement were so drafted as to be fully compatible with the obligations contained in the United Nations Charter.

Security in carrying out its responsibilities, my Government wishes to confirm that the Governments of Japan and the United States of America are in agreement concerning the interpretation of the Security Treaty and the Administrative Agreement as they relate to the Charter of the United Nations, and that it is the common understanding of the two Governments that;

A. The Security Treaty does not affect and shall not be interpreted as affecting in any way the rights and obligations of the two Governments under the Charter of the United Nations or the responsibility of the United Nations for the maintenance of international peace and security;

B. As set forth in the Charter of the United Nations, both Governments are obliged to settle any international disputes in which they may be involved by peaceful means in such a manner that international peace and security, and justice, are not endangered and to refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any state, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations;

I should appreciate it if your Government would confirm the understanding of my Government as stated above.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency, Monsieur l'Ambassadeur, the assurance of my highest consideration.

my highest consideration.

I have further the honor to inform your Excellency that the understanding of the Government of Japan as stated above is confirmed by the Government of the United States of America and that your note and this reply confirm that our two Governments are in agreement concerning the interpretation of the Security Treaty and the Administrative Agreement as they relate to the Charter of the United Nations.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my most distinguished consideration.
