

G7 Education Ministers' Meeting in Toyama and Kanazawa

- In the G7 Education Ministers' Meeting in Toyama and Kanazawa, G7 members will discuss how education addresses the challenges which were brought by the COVID-19 pandemic, and how we foster children who can fulfill the needs required in the future society.

Meeting Information

- Schedule : May 12 (Fri.) – May 15 (Mon.)
- Venue : Toyama City (Toyama Prefecture),
Kanazawa City (Ishikawa Prefecture)

Toyama City: May 12 (Fri.) and May 13 (Sat.)

Kanazawa City: May 14 (Sun.) and May 15 (Mon.)

Toyama International
Conference Center

ANA Crowne Plaza Hotel

Theme of the Meeting

- In the meeting, G7 members will discuss
Education after the COVID-19 pandemic
- Examples of discussion points are as follows:
 - The role of schools in the society after the COVID-19 pandemic
 - Education that unlocks the potential of all children
 - Fostering learners to adapt to social changes and global challenges
 - Re-connecting the World:
The Role of International Education
Exchange by all persons involved

※Under adjustment among G7 members