Legal Framework of Japanese international peace cooperation

- International Peace Cooperation Law (enactment: June 1992)
  - UN peacekeeping operations: > 13 cases in Cambodia, Timor-Leste, Haiti, South Sudan etc.
  - International humanitarian relief operations: > 5 cases in Rwanda, Afghanistan, Iraq etc.
  - International election observation operations: > 9 cases in Timor-Leste, Nepal, Sudan etc.

- About 10,300 personnel in 27 cases

The Five Principles

1. Agreement on a cease-fire shall have been reached among the parties to armed conflicts.
2. Consent for the undertaking of UN peacekeeping operations as well as Japan’s participation in such operations shall have been obtained from the host countries as well as the parties to armed conflicts.
3. The operations shall strictly maintain impartiality, not favoring any of the parties to armed conflicts.
4. Should any of the requirements in the above-mentioned principles cease to be satisfied, the Government of Japan may withdraw Self-Defense Force (SDF) units.
5. The use of weapons shall be limited to the minimum necessary to protect the lives of personnel, etc.
