Annex 6
referred to in Chapter 7

Part 1
Schedule of Japan

1. This Schedule sets out, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 108, the reservations taken by Japan with respect to specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which it may maintain existing, or adopt new or more restrictive, measures that do not conform with obligations imposed by:

(a) Article 104;

(b) Article 105;

(c) Article 106; or

(d) Article 107.

2. Each reservation in this Schedule sets out the following elements:

(a) “Sector” refers to the general sector in which the reservation is taken;

(b) “Sub-Sector” refers to the specific sector in which the reservation is taken;

(c) “Industry Classification” refers, where applicable, and only for transparency purposes, to the activity covered by the reservation according to domestic or international industry classification codes;

(d) “Type of Reservation” specifies the obligations referred to in paragraph 1 for which the reservation is taken;

(e) “Description” sets out the scope of the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation; and
(f) “Existing Measures” identifies, for transparency purposes, existing measures that apply to the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation.

3. In the interpretation of a reservation, all elements of the reservation shall be considered. The “Description” element shall prevail over all other elements.

4. With respect to Financial Services:

(a) For prudential reasons within the context of paragraph 1 of Article 8 of Annex 7, Japan shall not be prevented from taking measures such as non-discriminatory limitations on juridical forms of a commercial presence. For the same reasons, Japan shall not be prevented from applying non-discriminatory limitations concerning admission to the market of new financial services which shall be consistent with regulatory framework aimed at achieving such prudential objectives. In this context, securities firms are allowed to deal in securities defined in the relevant laws of Japan, and banks are not allowed to deal in those securities unless allowed in accordance with those laws.

(b) Services supplied in the Area of Peru to the service consumer in Japan without any active marketing from the service supplier are considered as services supplied under subparagraph 1(d)(ii) of Article 102.

5. Laws and regulations with regard to spectrum availability affecting obligations under Article 106 are not included in this Schedule, taking into account the Attachment 6 of Guidelines for the Scheduling of Specific Commitments (WTO Document S/L/92, dated 28 March 2001).

6. For the purposes of this Part:

(a) “JSIC” means Japan Standard Industrial Classification set out by the Statistics Bureau, Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications, and revised on 6 November 2007; and
(b) "CPC" means the Provisional Central Product Classification (Statistical paper Series M, No. 77, Department of International Economic and Social Affairs, Statistical Office of the United Nations, New York, 1991).

1. This Schedule sets out, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 108, the reservations taken by Peru with respect to specific sectors, sub-sectors or activities for which it may maintain existing, or adopt new or more restrictive, measures that do not conform with obligations imposed by:

   (a) Article 104;
   (b) Article 105;
   (c) Article 106; or
   (d) Article 107.

2. Each reservation in this Schedule sets out the following elements:

   (a) “Sector” refers to the general sector in which the reservation is taken;
   (b) “Sub-Sector” refers to the specific sector in which the reservation is taken;
   (c) “Obligations Concerned” specifies the obligations referred to in paragraph 1 for which the reservation is taken;
   (d) “Description” sets out the scope of the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation; and
   (e) “Existing Measures” identifies, for transparency purposes, existing measures that apply to the sector, sub-sector or activities covered by the reservation.

3. In the interpretation of a reservation, all elements of the reservation shall be considered. The “Description” element shall prevail over all other elements.
4. To clarify the commitment of Peru with respect to Article 106, juridical persons supplying financial services constituted under the laws of Peru are subject to non-discriminatory limitations on juridical form.

Note: For example, limited liability partnerships and sole proprietorships with limited liability are generally not acceptable juridical forms for financial institutions in Peru. This headnote does not affect, or otherwise limit, a choice by an investor of the other Party between branches and subsidiaries.

5. For financial services, as defined in subparagraph 1(a) of Article 2 of Annex 7, subparagraph 1(c) of Article 108 shall not apply to those non-conforming measures relating to subparagraph (e) of Article 106.

6. The commitments of Peru with respect to financial services supplied under subparagraph 1(d) of Article 102 do not be construed to allow that non-resident service suppliers to do business or solicit in its territory. Peru may define “doing business” and “solicitation” for the purposes of this commitment.

7. Peru may require that the administrators of a financial service supplier must be residents in Peru, and that a minority of the board of directors be composed of nationals of Peru, personal residing in the territory of Peru, or a combination thereof.
